He was a wonderful man who taught me many things as a young great nephew, I can still remember the taste of the baked scrod he used to fix me for lunch, playing with his model cars, math lessons at the kitchen table, and the warmth he filled my heart with. He was a role model everyone could look up to. Only wish we had more time, but I know your watching over us all. From the bottom of my heart I love you!.... Rest easy Unc!

Truly a great man. Words can't begin to express how sad my heart is. I can still remember the taste of his baked fish, him teaching me as a scared child how to climb the tree in the front yard, listening to the big stereo in the front room. I remember his advice on life and his caring words. As a little girl, I remember sneaking jolly rancher candies and playing hide and seek in the upstairs bedrooms. So many amazing memories... gone but never forgotten. Rest easy as I know you will be watching over all of us. I love you and miss you Uncle Albert! Until we meet again...
