It was a distinct pleasure to have known Bob. He was always welcoming and warm to my daughter and I. My daughter treasured the times when they would play ball. She gave him a run for his money, but she kept him on his toes when she was around. He will always be remembered and will be sorely missed. My condolences to the family, may times heal your wounds but bring clarity of his memory.

If a man measures his success in life based on upon how he has taught his family to love and provide for their own family, how to treat others, be successful, and their moral fiber. I think we would all agree Mr. Frank provides us with a blue print to follow.
