to the Middleton Family: Havent been with the family long, but feel I knew Charlotte a life time. She always brought joy wherever she walked, and I could always see the love she has for her family. Heaven just needed another angel and her name was drawn. What an honor that is. Sorrow will turn to pain before you can get to a happy spot. But pray for her and she will be with you always, just think of her and she will be there. love to you all. And thank you for letting me know Charlotte.

I have so many wonderful memories of Charlotte, like the time she stayed all night with us out to Papa(Ernest) and Mama's(Charma), she was always happy and joking. I know her and mom(Imogene) are looking down and watching over us.

Burl, Kathy, Ronnie, Randy, Mark, Matthew, Stephanie, Shannon, TC and all the Middletons and Holbrooks. Words can never express Charlotte leaving us, but I saw her entering heaven's gate with Jesus and Mary greeting her and her smile was so big and she looked so happy. Please remember she is happy, pain free and loves you all so much. I am so happy I was able to talk with her a few days before she took her trip to see Jesus and her family. May God be with you all and give you strength to endure and happiness in having Charlotte in your lives.

I grew up with Charlotte. We had plenty of fights, but always made up with each other in the end. My Grandson fell in love with her as an infant, and she was the only one that he would let touch his face. We will miss her so much. Glad she is now in God's loving hands.
