There is nothing to compare with the loss of a child, and only those who have know such a tragedy can truly understand your sorrow. Though words maybe meaningless right now, may you find some confort in the love and concern that surround you from so many who deeply care. i cant imagine what you and your family maybe going through, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Pleas if you need anything call. God Bless you and your family!

Dear Henry & Family, My Wife and I would like to extend our great condolences in your time of Loss. The loss of a child is the greatest grief a person can experience and I know that nothing we can say will lessen the pain. But please if you need anything, know that we will be there to help with what ever we can...

My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I know from my own experience with my mother that this is something that we have many questions about. Many of them will never have answers. That is not our place. Just know that the Lord has two beautiful angels in his kingdom. Prayers and thoughts, Jamie
