To her family, she was the best associate I ever worked with she always had time for all of us even when the boss was on her, about us. She carried the weight of the store on her shoulders never missing a day, we thought she came with the store (smile). But just the way she carried herself was amazing to watch, I believe if everyone thought and acted like her the world would be a better place to be. She's with the Lord now making other things happen? You all have my Blessings.

Sue was one of the finest people I knew, when I worked with her, you never had to think about who to cover for her, she was there... She was very proud of her family and loved them all. Not enough good words to cover her ...for the first time in a long time she is at peace and out of pain and suffering... I will miss her, as will anyone that knew her....SO VERY SPECIAL

Dear family of Constance Marshall, At times of great sadness many find comfort from reflecting on God's promises. The apostle Paul had confidence in a provision that God gave to those who have died, the resurrection of the dead (Acts 24:15). Jesus Christ also showed how grand this would be at John 5:28, 29 where he says all those in the memorial tombs will come out. We can find comfort that in the meantime, God is setting up provisions for that day to come. I hope that this will bring some comfort to you and your family during this time of sorrow. Sincerely, Danielle
