I share your sorrow and feel your great sense of loss. Karl was a truly great friend who was always there for everyone, but certainly there for me. He was there for my birthday parties as I grew up, school plays, holiday gatherings, picnics, various graduations, marriages, births of my children, and many more of life's events. He shared his beloved pets with us as we grew up. Sue-Sue, Duke, Darby, and Bear will be waiting to greet him at the pearly Gates. Karl introduced me to camping, boating, and the outdoors. He guided us to the ocean and our first venture to the Outer Banks. Although he was friends with my parents, as I matured, he became my friend as well. Karl, you will be greatly missed and never forgotten!

The angels are always near to those who are grieving, to whisper to them that their loved ones are safe in the hand of God. ~Quoted in The Angels' Little Instruction Book by Eileen Elias Freeman, 1994 Oh Karl, I will truly miss you. Without a doubt you are and always will be one of the nicest, kindest people I will ever know. This Old Milwaukee is for you! Please rest in peace and know that we will always take care of Mom as you would have wanted. I love you Karl!

I certainly share everyone's sorrow. Karl was a good and true friend. He suffered though all this illness but is at peace now. We shared a common love of the great outdoors. Karl is with Keith now. They are exploring those outdoor trails together in a finer place; the happy hunting ground.
