I want to express my condolences to your family on the passing of your husband. I have many fond memories of my studies with Prof. Malycke. He was my mentor and clarinet instructor when I attended Mount Union in the late 60's. He made music exciting for me, and nurtured and encouraged my enjoyment for the performing arts. I'm sure he is missed by all who knew him.

I have many memories of Mr. Malycke. He taught woodwinds classes, and orchestration. I wrote and rewrote many research papers and orchestrations and he helped me become well-trained for my career as a music teacher. He also happily shared slides from his trips to Europe! I am sorry for your loss but I will remember him fondly. Kathie Sharp Samuel (1971)
