Sherrie was a longtime friend of mine that I always considered as my daughter and I will miss her very much but, I know that I will see her again when it's my time to go and she will be there to receive all of us, in God's company. Now she must look over us and she must say: To every One I love and those who love me, Thank you for all the Love you have shown me, I gave you my friendship You can only guess the happiness you have brought me I will be apart for a short time, Let the souvenirs sooth your pain. My sincerest Condoleances to all the Family and friends. Diane Richard From Florida

I was so sad to see that Sherrie had passed away. It has been some time since I last saw Sherrie, but I often thought of her. We graduated together and shared alot of good times, she will be missed. I will keep her family in my prayers. This will be a hard time for you all. God will help along the way to make it easier.

Sherrie and i had many adventures together. We were wonderful friends i wish i was more of a friend to her in recent years as she was to me. When i was ill 15 years ago she sat by my side and pulled me trough even in a coma she did mot give up on me i cant begin to tell you how i counted on and loved her. i feel guilty for not always being there if she needed me. I have many memories of our holidays and things we did together. sherrie i apoligize for any times you might have thought i let you down though i know you didn't think it. You will always be in my heart and thoughts. I love you till we meet again in heaven. (By the way tell them to let me in) Love Your friend Billy.

To all of us. Sherrie was my bestest of friend. She was always willing to stay in the back while I was the front man. We were together for 24 years, and my life will never be the same. A void exists in my heart and soul. After almost a month, I still want to call her. We talked daily - if just to say hi. A part of me has died with her. She made me promise her many things and now life must begin - again. Together we will console ourselves, and be apart of each other. Saturday, Aug 19th, her Florida family are going to assemble together on Deerfield Beach and toast her and her memory. Good night to my friend, my sister...
