Ricky Lee Barrett, Sr.

FEB 17, 1954 - FEB 16, 2009

Ricky Lee Barrett, Sr., 54, went home to be with our Lord and Savior on Monday, February 16, 2009 at 10:45 a.m. at Alliance Community Hospital. Born on February 17, 1954 in Alliance, Ricky lived in Alliance all of his life and was a 1972 graduate of Marlinton High School. Ricky attended the Maranatha Church of God and had attended the Baptist Bible College in Lynchburg, VA in 1973. Mr. Barrett was employed at the Timken Company for the past 12 years as a furnace operator. He was a social member of the Sebring VFW and a former member of the S.A.L. at the American Legion in Sebring. In his past-time, he enjoyed camping with his family, making sausage gravy for breakfast, fishing with his buddy Bob, hunting, playing cards and corn hole, but he disliked playing hillbilly golf and washers. He is survived by his wife, Cheryl Lynn (Gloeckner) Barrett; a daughter, Angela (Barrett) Steed of Alliance; two sons, Ricky Barrett, Jr. and Bryan Barrett both of Alliance; six grandchildren; a sister, Marlene (Mitch) (Barrett) Morris of Alliance; a brother, Randy (Pam) Barrett of Alliance; and several nieces and nephews and several great nieces and nephews. Preceding him in death were parents, Loren Dwight and Marcella (Vance) Barrett. Funeral services will be held at the Maranatha Church of God, 14289 Edison St. NE, on Thursday, February 19, 2009, at 11:00 a.m. with Pastor Jeffrey Caldwell officiating. The family will receive friends at Sharer-Stirling-Skivolocke Funeral Home on Wednesday, February 18, 2009 from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. and on Thursday, February 19, 2009 from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. at the Maranatha Church of God. Interment will follow at Highland Memorial Park. The family would like to thank the nurses in the ICU unit at Alliance Community Hospital for their excellent care and wonderful compassion.

I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Ricky Lee Barrett, Sr. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible. Sincerely, Danielle

To all of Ricky's family and friends, I am Don (or Donnie) Vance's daughter and although I am not sure if I have ever met Ricky, I know that if I would've known him as an adult, I would remember. After reading his favorite activities posted here, I can see that he must have been a lot of fun to be around, and loved and missed by so many. God rest his soul and may He comfort each and every one of you through this difficult time. May he rest in peace and in loving hearts always. Love & God Bless, Brandie (Vance) Brown

◆For this God is our God for ever and ever he will be our guide even unto death.◆ Psalm 48:14 May God give you and your family strength during this difficult period. Cheryl and family we are so sorry for your horrible loss, there are not enough words that can be said to help you through this difficult time. Just know that our thoughts and prayers are there for you and your family. Please remember Ricky is a happier and healthier man than we are and is in a better place and at peace and not hurting any more. May God Bless You All. Donnie and Barb Vance
