Deborah Bryant

OCT 24, 1957 - JUL 6, 2015

Deborah Bryant of Atlanta, Georgia was granted her Angel wings and went home to be with her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ in the morning on July 6, 2015 where she passed away peacefully.

Deborah was born October 24, 1957 in Alliance, Ohio to the late Wilmer Bryant Sr. and Sadie Mae Bryant. She was preceded in death by two brothers: Ray Bryant and T.J. "Kish" Yates; a sister: Jessica Miller Forrest; two nephews: Jeffrey Bryant and Tommy Yates.

Deborah is survived by: seven sisters, Lola Hosenbackez of Columbus, OH, Elmaree Wilmington of Akron, OH, Lavenia Larsuel of Alliance, OH, Dr. Kitty (Larry) Malone of Atlanta, GA, Drewsilla Riggins of Alliance, OH, Dr. HaZel (Hugh) Seay, of Atlanta, GA and Elaine Bryant of Atlanta, GA; three brothers, Wil (Leonora) Bryant, Jr. of Tampa, FL, Edward (Willie) Bryant of Columbus, OH and Chester Bryant of Alliance, OH; like a sister, Diane Larsuel of Columbus OH; special nieces Kuena Bryant of Phoenix, AZ and Dora Bryant of Columbus, OH, both adored by Deborah and shared many laughs, and good times together; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Deborah was a lifelong resident of Alliance where she lived and attended Alliance High School. In the spring of 2008 she relocated to Georgia, and became affiliated with Divine Faith Ministries of Atlanta Georgia.

As a domestic homemaker she loved to cook and enjoyed music and entertaining, but her passion and delight was family and friends. Her interest included reading, writing poetry and being a devoted Christian.

Despite her limitations she had the ability and desire to share and give to others love and wisdom to anyone that was close to her. All she needed was a vehicle and opportunity to give to anyone close enough to her-- a pot of gold that was in her heart and that was characteristically Deborah.
