As a typical teenager, I thought I knew it all. Now looking back on it, it is amazing how little I really knew. But at least I knew this...Arch St., Jeff and Mrs. Owens were always there. Mrs. Owens welcomed us, fed us, laughed with us, (and I'm sure laughed at us), inspired us and advised us, and always with kindness and genuine concern. And always with a smile. I now suspect that, in some small corner of heaven, at the end of every day, there are a bunch of saints and angels who gather together, talk sports and a little smack, listen to "Midnight Train to Georgia" or an Al Green tune, and eat the best johnny marzetti that place has ever seen. God bless you Mrs. Owens, and God bless your family. Gregg Zelasko

Our thoughts are with your family at this time. Lucy was a neat lady who never seemed to forget a name. She had a unique ability to recall events long forgotten by most. We loved the stories Jeff and Doug told us of her over the years. Steve and Chris Beard

To the Owens children and especially to Jeff, with whom I was closest, please accept my condolences on the passing of a wonderful and caring person - your Mother. There's no telling how many nights so many young people spent hanging out at the Owens house on South Arch playing cards, listening to music (I ALWAYS think of Lucy when I hear "Love Will Keep Us Together" by the Captain and Tennille because she loved that song), and just enjoying each other's (and her) company. She worked hard to raise a large family and for that, I always admired her. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Most sincerely - Greg Burke

Lucy will always be remembered as a beloved ❤️ member of our family. She and our mother, Carolyn Brubaker, were the best of friends for decades and were always there for each other. Lucy, and in the early days, her children, spent many happy times with our family, including packing a dozen kids in a station wagon to go swimming in the 60's, a carload for $1!! Lucy loved to tell stories about her children and all the other kids that spent time at her home. As Lucy aged and developed health issues, including near blindness, she continued to display a positive and grateful attitude. She would smile, hold our hands and talk of the cherished "old days" with such fondness, always offering a kind word of appreciation, in her silky soothing voice which I will never forget. Lucy you were an amazing and smart person, and I totally agreed with your political views!! You were an inspiration to all those lucky enough to know and love you. Go sing with the angels 😊 now and give Carolyn and Bill a hug and kiss 🥹🥹 for us. Our deepest sympathies to the family, Susan Brubaker Jackson & Extended family 🙏
