Mary Jayne Fulop

OCT 26, 1920 - AUG 2, 2019

Mary Jayne (Dailey) Fulop, 98, of Alliance died on August 2,, 2019 at Danbury Senior Living, surrounded by her daughters. She was born October 26, 1920 to William P. and Tressa Daily (Zicarrdi) and lived in Alliance all her life.

Tressa died when Mary Jayne was only 18 months old. Since her father could not care for her or her sister, Mary Jayne went to live with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perkins of Alliance.

When her father remarried, she moved to Cleveland where she attended Lakewood High School. She later moved back to Alliance and was a 1938 graduate of Alliance High School. She moved back to Cleveland where she attended Spencerian Business College and graduated in 1941. She then worked in Alliance as a legal secretary for Attorney Victor Blumensteil. At that time, Mary Jayne began her life-long avocation of volunteering which started when she became a driver for the Woman's Civil Defense Corp.

In 1943 she traveled by train to Coupeville, WA where she married John Michael Fulop who was stationed on Whidbey Island. While there, she worked at the Oak Harbor Washington Naval Base. After her husband was deployed she returned to Alliance.

In April 1945 she joined the First Presbyterian Church. She served as both an Elder and a Deacon in the church. She was also secretary of the Woman's Congregational Society, and served on various committees during her lifetime.

Mary Jayne worked as a homemaker for all of her married life. But when widowed in 1972 she went to work at Alliance City Hall. After her retirement she began her 30 year volunteer career at Alliance City Hospital where she spent most of her time working in the gift shop. She served as an RSVP volunteer for 10 years. She enjoyed volunteering for the Homework Assistance program at Bethany Presbyterian Church, at the Good Samaritan Health Clinic, and delivering Meals on Wheels.
