More than 60 years ago Mike and I were in the same Cub Scout Pack. His mom was our den mother and we always felt welcome and were well fed in their home. Spent a lot of time with Mike (Jocko as we fondly remember him) in high school. I trust he has found rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Dear family, I will miss Mike very much. We spent a lot of time talking on the phone these passed years. He fought a good fight. Now, the fight is over. He believed in the LORD. I know Mike is at peace now. I loved Mike. Cousin Harriet
