A lot of my favorite childhood memories are from Maplegrove in Louisville, Ohio where my Uncle John owned three houses beside each other. Where a lot of our family resided. Where a lot of our family now met, and where many, many memories were made. The last visit I had with you before you passed my brothers, and I came up got you a gift and we just talked about so much. I told you how every once in awhile I'll drive down Maplegrove and reminisce on those days. And we talked about our love for Spanish Rice, and how good Aunt Tammy made it. I loved when my Grandma or Dad would make it also. It really was a dish that our family loved. And you mentioned you'd drive past there also from time, to time. You were so loved and made a difference in a lot of peoples lives. And was very known. I hope you watch over your children, and grandchildren with Aunt Tammy. Please show them signs that everything is going to be okay. I know they miss you both so dearly it's painful. I love you Uncle John!

A chance meeting 47 years ago with John affected the course of my life and still holds true even today. Friends can be parted for years and by paths life lays before us yet when they meet again, time means nothing and it was like only yesterday. That chance meeting even affected where I was and who surrounded me at the time of his passing and why I was there. Every life we come into contact with has the ability to change that person and their world forever. I can say that John definitely changed the course of my life and will never be forgotten. My sincere condolences go out to the loved ones he left behind and may he rest in peace. Richard
