

Alyssa "Sis" Nicole Armour

May 12, 1989 - May 5, 2020

On the afternoon of May 5, 2020, the beautiful daughter of Wally "JR" and Fonda, Alyssa "Sis" Nicole Armour, surrounded by family at her home, went skiing into Heaven after fighting a courageous battle with ovarian cancer since April 2018.

Born on May 12, 1989 in Canton, Ohio to Wally "JR" and Fonda (Sharpnack) Armour, she lived in Alliance most of her life. She enjoyed spending the last seven years living in Aspen and Snowmass, Colorado.

Alyssa was a member of Union Avenue United Methodist Church where she was baptized and confirmed.

A 2007 graduate of St. Thomas Aquinas High School, she also attended Akron University and The Ohio State University.

She was employed at Pine Creek Cook House and Brunelleschi's in Aspen, Colorado. Alyssa was an avid skier, enjoyed yoga, hiking, bicycling, hula hooping and most of all playing with her Morkie, "Leo".

Survivors include her parents Wally "JR" and Fonda L. Armour of Alliance, OH; her brother, Wally B. Armour; her sister, Abbey Armour; grandparents, Wally A. (Mary Lee) Armour; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Preceding her in death were her grandparents, Morris and Carolyn Mercer.

A public Procession of Love for Alyssa's final journey will begin at Sharer-Stirling-Skivolocke Funeral Home, on Monday, May 11, 2020 at 4:30 pm.

A special thank you from Alyssa's family to the Calaway-Young Cancer Center in Glenwood Springs, Colorado and to Cleveland Clinic for their care.

Memorial contributions are suggested to Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance, www.ocrahope.org.

You are invited to view Alyssa's tribute wall, offer condolences and share memories at www.sharerfuneralhome.com. Arrangements are by the Sharer-Stirling-Skivolocke Funeral Home.

“ *JR, Fonda, Wally & Abbey,
My deepest condolences to all of you. My heart broke for all of you when I heard the news of Sis's passing. Words are never going to be enough, but her memories will live within all of us. She was the free, care spirit we all wished we could be. Growing up with her and Wally was the BEST. So many memories, laughs, long summer nights, sleepovers, ski trips, etc. I will cherish always. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love xoxo Kristen*

“ *Jr, Fonda, Wally and Abbey - No words can express the sadness we feel at this time. All our best memories of our children growing up together come flooding back. Alyssa was so special and we loved her dearly. We often reflect on our many ski trips, and especially the time Wally rescued Alyssa from falling down the hill on Swiss Twix! Big brother looking out for little Sis. Their connection and love for one another was endearing. May you find comfort knowing she is finally at peace. Sending our love and condolences. “ When Alyssa came to the Cancer Walk and Talk support group at the Calaway Young Center, we were all taken by her energy, her enthusiasm and her love of life. We fell for her almost immediately. We were also with her on the morning she learned of her cancer’s return, and she shared her fears and her pain without reservation. She was so open, so strong and yet so vulnerable. Our hearts are broken that she was taken so young, and we send our love to you who knew her best. We are so grateful for our time with her.

“ To Fonda, Wally and Wally, my memories of your sweet baby girl will always be ones of warmth and love. Her presence during treatments and hospital stays were always made easier because of her sweet disposition and kindness. She was open, authentic, funny, charismatic and beautiful. Her friends from the Cancer Walk and Talk group at Calaway Young Cancer Center are all grieving her loss and sending you their love. May your family always feel the gift that being with her as she died was the last thing she needed from you and you were there. Love, Sean Jeung, Chaplain, Valley View Hospital
