“ So sorry to hear this about my cousin. I really thought he was a tough stand up guy, worked with him at Lordstown. He was a hard working man with a great jovial attitude, loved talking to him and he will be missed. I remember talking to him about playing football in high school when he played with Lenny Dawson great times. My heart goes out to the family you are in my prayers. Tim Hamon

“ Right, wrong or indifferent you knew right where you stood with Lee Woolf. I learned early on this man could be tough as nails but I also grew to learn that he too had a big heart for the things he believed in strongly. This man treated me like his own son and for that I will be forever grateful. Godspeed Mr. Woolf. . . Godspeed.
