“ To the family of Sally,
So very sorry to hear of your recent loss. So very tragic and so young. I only have memories of Sally when she was very young but such great memories. She was the baby and a cute one too.
My mother was the younger sister of Sally's father (Uncle Charles).
Please accept my deepest sympathy for the pain and heart ache you are facing. I know too well that pain.
I sincerely hope one of the sisters will see this and contact me.
God's blessings and comforting love during this time.

“ To know Sally Schubert was to love her. Uncle Todd and the rest of Aunt Sally's family know she lived a beautiful, memorable and successful life. Ralph Waldo Emerson widely defined this as: "To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded." Aunt Sally, you have more than succeeded. You have encouraged and inspired others to strive for that same success. You will be loved and missed, but most importantly, you will be celebrated for the life you led and the lasting memories you left behind. We will treasure these remembrances of you forever in our hearts.
Love Always, Shannon, Steve, Savannah, Sophia, Conner & Liam Hoar

“ Uncle Todd we are so sorry for your loss. We have such great memories of when you and Aunt Sally would visit over the holidays. My kids will always cherish the times when you took them to Olympia Candy Kitchen. Of course Aunt Sally let them order whatever they wanted and then pick out something from the vast selection of homemade chocolates. I'm not sure who enjoyed those Olympia trips more, the kids or Aunt Sally! We love you and you will always be welcome in our home and remain a part of our family forever!

“ Sally was my baby sister. This is so heartbreaking having her pass away so unexpectedly. My fondest memories are when she was little and always wanting to do what her older brothers and sisters were doing. This picture of Sally is beautiful. She was such a generous person and she loved her nieces and nephews. Rest in peace my baby sister.

Love,
Connie &
